

CLOVER RIDGE PLACE AUGUST 2010

The Lady of the Flowers:

*Upon a time at morning's dew,
There stood a figure tall and true.
Among the grass and buttereups,
In scarlet, red as the wine she sups.*

*Her face as fair as laughing child,
Skin pale as snow in winter mild.
Her auburn hair a long cascade,
Feet set to dancing through the glade.*

*Has ever one lived who heartfelt knew,
Such an image of beauty pure and true.
To each and all a shining light,
With lips flush full and eyes so bright.*

*And in that meadow come what may,
She dances freely everyday.
To make the flowers that grow there bloom,
Awakened by her sweet perfume.*

*Their colours set the field ablaze,
by light and warmth of the Sun's rays.
Of violet and red and yellow and blue,
They yearn for her and act with woo.*

*She is mother, crone and maid,
To all that grow with leaves displayed.
Fair Eden for I name her thus,
My life I'd give her without fuss.*

*And when day is done with Sun abed,
She yet wears daisies on her head.
And dances awhile beneath the moon,
But for me at least is gone too soon.*

All of the residents and staff of Clover Ridge Place wish to extend their deepest sympathy to the family of Dale Koon. He will be greatly missed by all.

A very warm welcome, to the newest members of our family, Margaret Betle, & Arlene and Wayne Moeller.

All of us here at Clover Ridge would like to express our thanks to all of the kind people who have donated fresh produce to us this summer. There is nothing like fresh fruits and vegetables from a garden. THANK YOU!!!!

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank all of our wonderful volunteers who come up to Clover Ridge to help out and also to those who accompany our residents on their outings. A lot of these things would not be possible without your dedication and generosity! THANK YOU!!!!

As you can probably see, we have been working on our landscaping and our flowers. Everything is looking quite beautiful and colorful. We are adding a few new bushes and flowers in our yards. Please feel free to check them all out and let us know what you think!!
