

CLOVER RIDGE PLACE FEBRUARY 2011

Valentine Memories

*Grandma's book of valentines
Rekindles memory's flame,
Of days when she was just a girl
And life a happy game.*

*Each lace-edged card a getting bears
From friends of long ago,
Girls in gingham dresses
And that "special" Sunday beau.*

*It brings a twinkle to her eye,
Dissolving lines of age,
As we sit in the lamplight
And turn each well worn page.*

*It makes me kind of wonder
If perhaps some distant day,
A grandchild shall sit at my side
And leaf each page this way.*

*'Cause I could sit for hours,
There at my grandma's knee,
And listen to the stories
That the valentines set free.*

*A book of antique valentines
That reaches back in time
To tell the tales of yesteryear
In Illustrated rhyme.*

Shirley Sallay
